The Intercultural Studies program integrates theological missiological, and practical training in order to equip students to communicate the Gospel cross-culturally and to advance the establishment of indigenous churches among every nation, tribe and tongue through church planting, leadership development and holistic ministry. During this program of studies students will engage significant field ministry experiences.

Upon completion of this program, students will:

1. Discuss God's redemptive purpose as revealed in the Old and New Testament.
2. Discuss the history of Christian missions and explain the Pentecostal distinctive of Assemblies of God missions' history and philosophy.
3. Explain key principles for maintaining physical, mental, spiritual, and relational wholeness in a cross-cultural environment.
